

THE NATION'S NAVY.

A Partial Synopsis of the Secretary's Report.

TO ADVANCE THE CHURCH SUITS

Hon. F. S. Richards Before the United States Supreme Court—Other Interesting Telegraphic Items.

WASHINGTON, December 3.—The report of the Secretary of the Navy, of which brief synopsis was telegraphed a few days ago, contains several interesting features which could not be embodied at that time. Of the work of the Asiatic squadron it says: Owing to the continued unsettled condition of affairs in Corea, part of the force on the station has been kept during the year constantly in Korean waters. In June last an outbreak of the populace in Seoul was threatened, and, at the request of our minister, an armed force of twenty-five seamen and marines from the Essex, under command of Lieutenant Galloway, was landed in that city to protect American residents, and withdrawn a few days later upon affairs becoming again pacific. The Brooklyn and Juniatta have been detached from the squadron and ordered to the United States, the former via Honolulu and Cape Horn, and the latter by way of the Suez Canal and Mediterranean Sea. The Juniatta joined the squadron from the Pacific in March last. The Pacific squadron continues under command of Rear Admiral L. A. Kimberly, and consists of the Trenton, Vandalia, Mohican, Adams, Alert, Nipsic, Dolphin, Pinta, and the storeship Monongahela. The Trenton, Nipsic and Dolphin have joined the squadron during the past year, and the Iroquois and Juniatta have left it.

THE FORMER NEEDS EXTENSIVE REPAIRS, and was ordered to Mare Island Navy Yard in March last and was put out of commission, and the latter ordered to Asiatic stations. Vessels of the squadron have visited during the year the principal ports on the west coast of Mexico, Central and South America, but on account of political disturbances in the Hawaiian and Samoan Islands and in Peru, almost the entire force on the station have been kept constantly in the waters of those countries for the protection of the lives and property of our citizens. The Mohican having been over three years in commission, has new officers and men, and is now at the Mare Island yard refitting for service. The Monongahela is there, and when they are completed will receive stores and supplies for the Pacific squadron and return to her station. The Pinta is still employed in the Alaskan waters. Of the steamer Thetis, the report says: The Thetis has been employed during the past year on special service in the North Pacific. She has been actively engaged in visiting the principal settlements on the north and west coasts of Alaska, and has rendered valuable services to our whaling fleet in the Arctic and to numerous destitute miners in Alaska, through the exertion of her commanding officer. The American schooner Jane Gray, abandoned in the Arctic, was floated and repaired sufficiently to be sent to San Francisco, where she was turned over to her owners, the officers and men of the Thetis generously waiving all claims for salvage.

RECOMMENDATIONS RENEWED. Recommendations are renewed to build large proving and testing machines at New York and Mare Island navy yards, and to establish central steam and electric generating plants in the navy yards, which should supply all of the points where steam power and light are required. Chief Constructor Wilson reports that the navy yard at Mare Island is being fitted with a complete outfit of modern shipbuilding tools. Mare Island, our only yard on the Pacific coast, is particularly well suited for shipbuilding purposes.

A SUSPECT ARRESTED. VIENNA, December 3.—A person has been arrested at Venice while on his way from Rome to Trieste, upon suspicion of having designs upon the life of Emperor Francis Joseph.

A CLAIM ALLOWED. WASHINGTON, December 3.—The court of claims, to-day, gave judgment for $13,839 in favor of Colonel John S. Mosby, late United States Consul-General to China. This represents the fees for island certificates to Chinese immigrants to the United States, etc., collected in an official capacity, and for which accounting the officers of the Treasury refused to allow him credit.

RUSSIA AND PERSIA. BERLIN, December 3.—The Cologne Gazette declares the diplomatic relations between Russia and Persia threaten to become strained, almost to a breaking point, owing to the ascendancy of England in Persia. It is asserted the Shah refused exequatue to the Russian consul at Mesched, where an English consul has long been stationed.

THE DAILY HORROR. MERRITTON, Ontario, December 3.—A coal train ran into an engine, this morning, fireman Michael Sherry, Engineer James Williams and Brakeman Allen of the coal train, were killed. It is said the body of a tramp, stealing a ride, is in the debris.

THE POPE DIDN'T. BOSTON, Mass., December 3.—The Pilot's Rome cable denies the truth of the report that the Pope directed Cardinal Gibbons to convey the Pope's congratulations to President Harrison on his election, on the ground that Catholic interests would be safe in his hands.

HENRY STANLEY HEARD FROM. LIVERPOOL, December 2.—Mail advices from the West Coast of Africa say a rumor has reached Bonnie from Upper Niger that Henry Stanley is proceeding at the back of the great oil rivers under the British flag, and that the natives are friendly.

THE IRISH. DUBLIN, December 3.—In spite of the fact that a decree has been issued prohibiting processions, a parade was held in Waterford to-night in memory of the "Manchester martyrs." The police made a charge and succeeded in dispersing them. The people retaliated, using stones as weapons, and a scene of great disorder ensued.

THE ANARCHISTIC SUNDAY SCHOOLS. CHICAGO, November 3.—Three hundred persons held a meeting at Aurora Turner Hall, this afternoon, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization to support so-called "Anarchist Sunday School." The object was accomplished, seventy of the people present signing the roll of membership on the spot. The feature of the meeting was the general denial that the schools were Anarchistic or Socialistic. The plea was made that they were simply anti-religious. One of the leading radicals voiced the sentiment of the meeting when he said this is an attempt to remove our children from the demoralizing influences of Christian religion and its baneful effect on their mind, making them too stupid and lazy to think, instead of developing their intellect.

THE APPROPRIATIONS NEEDED. WASHINGTON, December 3.—The Secretary of the Treasury transmitted to Congress his estimates for the appropriations required in the government service for the fiscal year ending June 30th 1890. They aggregate $323,467,488, which is $382,305 less than the estimates for 1889 and $4,590,511 more than the appropriations for the current fiscal year. The estimates are as follows: Legislative establishment, $3,381,903; executive establishment, $18,355,081; judicial establishment, $436,000; foreign interior intercourse, $1,947,555; military establishment, $25,923,372; naval establishment, $25,162,028; Indian affairs, $5,475,410; pensions, $81,768,700; public works, $21,204,909; postal service, $4,303,411; miscellaneous, $25,856,385; permanent annual appropriations, $108,691,055. Total $323,467,488.

DIFFERENCE OF OPINION. CHICAGO, December 3.—This afternoon Judge Tuley of the Superior Court, issued a rule on Judge Prendergast, of the county court, forbidding him to proceed to appoint a receiver for the bankrupt firm of Lindauer Brothers & Co., clothiers. Judge Prendergast held that Judge Tuley had no jurisdiction in the premises, and proceeded to appoint a receiver. Judge Prendergast named Michael J. Schweisthal, cashier of the International Bank, assignee. The matter was further complicated, this afternoon, by the action of Judge Horton, who, on petition of attorneys for the insolvents and several New York creditors, appointed Bernard Kuppenheimer receiver for the failed firm. It is said the petition of these creditors was part of a plan to outwit Judge Prendergast, and they certainly now have the best of the matter, as Receiver Kuppenheimer took complete possession of the property to-night before Assignee Schweisthal put in an appearance. According to Judge Tuley's rule, Judge Prendergast must explain his action to-morrow.

INDIANAPOLIS INKLINGS. INDIANAPOLIS, December 3.—President-elect Harrison had a quiet day, and was at work in his library most of the time. General James Longstreet, of Georgia, accompanied by Hon. E. Angier of Atlanta, and E. C. Atkins, of this city, were among the callers this afternoon. The President-elect conversed half an hour or longer with the famous Southern soldier. This evening, General Harrison dined at the residence of Mr. Atkins. The other guests were General Longstreet, E. Angier, Dr. Wilson and half a dozen Indianapolis visitors. General Longstreet tells a reporter that there is not the least bit of political significance in his visit. When asked what the south wanted, the veteran laughingly replied: "It wants everything. It wants the earth if it can get it, but it wants more than anything else the good, honest and friendly spirit manifested toward it. We simply want to be treated kindly and considerately."

ANARCHISTIC WORK. A desperate and coldest blooded attempt to commit murder occurred early this morning in the bakery of James P. Bruce. About three years ago he took a poor, homeless German, named George Hacker, in his employ and taught him the trade. Hacker gradually developed into a full blown Anarchist, and when conversing on the subject of Anarchy, would grow excited and abusive. This morning, when Bruce entered the bakery to mix flour for his bread, Hacker sprang upon him, armed with a hatchet and a long knife. He struck Bruce on the head with the hatchet, then he crowded the dazed victim against the wall and deliberately PLUNGED THE DAGGER INTO Bruce's neck and face nine times. The victim cried out for his wife and the brave woman rushed into the room and clutched the blood-beattered Anarchist about the neck, dragging him away from her husband just as he was lifting the hatchet to brain the helpless man.

A terrible struggle between the frantic wife and the Anarchist then took place. He was wild with murderous hate, and holding his bloody knife in his hand he rushed about the room endeavoring to get again at the dying Bruce. He finally got by the wife and reached Bruce, when the latter, who is of giant frame, struggling to his feet, made an effort, and grappling with the villain, struck Hacker a blow on the head. Hacker then fled. Bruce is at the hospital, with slim hopes of living through the night.

CREATED THE GALLOWS. The trial of Edward Chamberlain, at Logansport, for the murder of his sweet heart, Ida Whittinberg, was terminated this morning by the suicide of the defendant. The evidence against him was overwhelming, and the death penalty would surely have been inflicted. Chamberlain hanged himself with strips of bed ticking.

A BLOODY FIGHT. The Highlanders Have a Little Mutual Set-to.

PORTLAND, Ogn., December 3.—To-day a bloody fight took place in the streets of this city between two factions of highlanders. The trouble between the two crowds had been brewing some time. On Thursday a fist fight occurred between several highlanders, and this afternoon in a meeting which took place on the streets, about twenty Chinamen, all armed with pistols, participated. Over fifty shots were exchanged, and the row lasted some ten minutes. Four highlanders were shot down and two others badly wounded. Four were removed to the hospital, where one died very soon after. The other three are wounded fatally and cannot live. Two other wounded men were carried away during the fight with their countrymen, and cannot be found by the police. Several more are believed to be wounded. Five highlanders have been arrested, who are charged with being connected with the bloody affair. At the time the streets were filled with crowds, but none of the spectators were struck by random shots. The most intense excitement prevails. In Chinatown, where several thousands of Chinese are congregated, it is feared the trouble is not yet ended. The bloody fight was due to the hatred caused by rivalry of interests between the factions.

IN THE SUPREME COURT.

WASHINGTON, December 3.—In the Supreme Court, to-day, Hon. F. S. Richards, of Salt Lake, made a motion for the advancement of the case of the United States vs. the Mormon Church, for the forfeiture and escheat of church property to government on appeal from the decree of the Supreme Court of Utah. After stating the claims of government and of appellants, the following reasons were given for the advancement of the case, viz., that it is a cause in which the United States is a party; that it involves the constitutionality of certain acts of Congress; that it affects not only the people of Utah, but the rights of church corporations of every denomination in the Territories and is therefore a question of public interest; that a large amount of church property has been seized and is now held by a receiver, much of it of a perishable nature, and thus liable to irreparable loss and damage if left till the case can come up in its order, and the delay with the great expenses entailed will amount to the virtual confiscation of the property; that nearly half a million dollars of personal property has been thus seized when there is no law or semblance of law for the seizure of personal property; that part of the real estate so seized has been held by said church for over thirty-five years, and before the act of 1862 was passed limiting the amount of real estate to be held by church corporations, and that another part has been held as a paragonage and is exempted in the terms of the law. For these and other reasons the appellants ask an early hearing of the case. Counsel for government offered no objection. The court took the matter under advisement.

OBITUARY. NEW YORK, December 2.—State Senator Henry R. Low, president pro tem, of the Senate, died to-day.

POOR BARRY. EAST SAONIAW, December 3.—In an interview, Thomas B. Barry says he is about to commence legal proceedings at Philadelphia against the Knights of Labor, through its officers, for defamation of character and alleged expulsion. He also placed his case in the hands of his attorneys, Saturday, for criminal action, in the United States court, against John W. Hayes, secretary and treasurer of the Knights of Labor, for violation of the postal laws by sending Barry a letter on which appeared "Expelled G. E. B."

BRIEF TELEGRAMS. BOULANGER arrived in Nevers Sunday morning, and was greeted by 500 people at a banquet in the evening. THERE was a riot at Lyons, France, Sunday, over the discontent of municipal regulations regarding the Grand Theatre. Several arrests. THREE young men were run over by a Pennsylvania railroad freight train on Saturday night, and killed. They were horribly mutilated. SATURDAY morning, the People's Bank, of Fairmont, Neb., suspended. Liabilities $300,000; assets meagre. JOHN BRIGHT is worse. CHARLES DANA, of the New York Sun, will be given a reception by the Irish clergy in Rome.

WHY will you give $50, $60, and $70 for a sewing machine, when you can get one for $20, $25, $30, or $35—WITH THE HERALD FOR ONE YEAR THROWN IN? Write to THE HERALD, Salt Lake for particulars.

FIFTIETH CONGRESS.

The Second Session Convened on Monday.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE READ.

The Union Pacific Railway Bill to Come Up in the Senate To-day—Nothing Important in the House.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, December 3.—It was an unusually full Senate that responded to the President pro tem, Ingalls' call, at 12 o'clock to-day. At that time all the galleries were full, except the President's and the diplomatic department. As the minute hand overtook the hour indicator on the dial of the clock facing him, Ingalls let fall the gavel and Chaplain Butler opened the proceedings with prayer.

A few moments were spent in greeting Senators, and then Senator Sherman offered the usual resolution that the Secretary notify the House that the Senate is ready to proceed to business. The resolution was adopted and a committee appointed to notify the President that the Senate is ready to receive any communication he may have to make. Messrs. Morrill and Sausbury composed this committee.

On Mr. Cameron's resolution the Senate, at 12:47, took a recess for half an hour. Later the recess was further extended to 1:30 o'clock. At the conclusion of the recess, the usual message from the House announcing the fact of its being in session and having appointed a committee to wait upon the President, was delivered, it having been delayed in consequence of the recess. That was followed by the report of the committee to wait on the President, to the effect that it had performed that duty, and the President would communicate in writing immediately.

Then the President's message was delivered by Pruden, one of his secretaries, and McCook, secretary of the Senate, proceeded to read it. The reading of the message occupied an hour and twenty minutes. The portions of it which discuss the questions of tariff revision, treasury surplus, baby troubles and the West incident were listened to with very close attention and apparent interest by fourteen Republican Senators and about an equal number of Democrats. Other portions of the message seemed to have few, if any, listeners, and the reading had the effect of gradually clearing the galleries of the numerous spectators.

When the reading was finished the message, on motion of Hoar, was laid on the table and ordered printed. Hoar then said he was about to move an adjournment, but thought it would be convenient for the Senate to learn from the gentlemen having the various measures in charge what would likely be the order of business for to-morrow. Senator Ingalls said the unfinished business was a bill to reduce taxation (the tariff).

Hoar—At what hour will that bill be in order to-morrow? President Ingalls—2 o'clock. Frye—I give notice I shall call up for consideration, with the consent of the Senator, the bill for settlement with the Union Pacific Railway Company to-morrow morning, immediately after the routine business of the morning is completed.

By Chandler—That we would ask for action on his resolution to investigate the Louisiana election of April last, and by Allison, that he would ask the Senate to proceed with the tariff bill and would even (if the discussion became too protracted) call it up during the morning hours of the session.

HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, December 3.—Long before the hour of meeting of the second session of the Fiftyeth Congress the public galleries were filled with spectators. On the floor handbaking was indulged in, and congratulations on re-election or condolences on defeat exchanged among the members. Jocose rally on the part of Republicans, patient resignation on the part of Democrats were everywhere evident.

Republican members who are prominently mentioned in connection with the speakership, came in for an extra share of felicitations, it being generally conceded on the floor that the next House will be Republican with from three to seven majority.

When Randall entered the chamber, which he did at a few moments before noon, he was surrounded by his friends, desirous of expressing their pleasure at seeing him once more able to resume his congressional duties.

CALL TO ORDER.

At precisely 12 o'clock the fall of the gavel stilled the tumult which existed in the hall, and silence reigned while the chaplain offered a prayer.

Roll was then called, and the hum of conversation broke out afresh. During the progress of the call of members, Cleveland entered the executive gallery and became the attention of spectators. The call developed the presence of twenty-three members, there being eighty-eight absentees.

On motion of Mills, of Texas, a resolution was adopted, directing the clerk to inform the Senate a quorum of the House had appeared, and the House was ready to proceed to business.

In accordance with the resolution, the Speaker appointed a committee to join a similar committee appointed by the Senate to wait on the President and inform him that Congress was ready to receive anything he might transmit. The House then, at 12:20, took a recess for an hour.

THE MESSAGE READ.

After recess, Holman announced that the committee appointed to wait upon the President had performed the duty and that the President would communicate to Congress forthwith.

Pruden, one of the President's secretaries, was then announced. The annual message was delivered to the House and immediately read by the clerk.

That portion of the message in which the President treats of the tariff question was listened to attentively by members of both sides of the House. Now and then a smile, more of triumph than derision, would appear upon the face of some enthusiastic Republican, but the silence was not broken until the clerk read in a clear voice: "The cause for which the battle is waged is comprised within lines, clearly and distinctly defined. It should never be compromised; it is the people's cause." Then the Democrats could no longer restrain their feelings, and broke into a round of applause, which was answered by the Republicans with derisive laughter.

From this point the interest in the message slackened. Mills was the only member who paid the slightest attention to the further reading, and the noise of conversation became so great that this was no easy task. When, at 1:45, the reading was completed, Mills offered a resolution, which was agreed to, referring the message to the committee of the whole, and providing for its printing.

Adjourned.

Another Sick Emperor.

BERLIN, December 3.—It is known definitely that Emperor William is confined with an ear complaint, and not because of a cold.

The Bank's Gunboats.

ODESSA, December 3.—The Commercial bank of Odessa has ordered the construction of twelve gunboats for use in its behalf in Montenegro.

Received With Honors.

BOMBAY, December 3.—Lord Lansdowne, Viceroy of India, was received to-day with unusual ceremony at his landing.

House of Commons.

LONDON, December 3.—The Commons went into committee, to-night, on the Irish estimates. An appropriation of £12,700 was asked, in order to complete the sum of £30,707 for the expenses of the Irish Secretary's office.

Ellis, Liberal, moved reductions, his purpose being to raise a general debate on Balfour's administration. He charged that the government was using coercion to such an extent that 1,500 persons had been imprisoned. Balfour was seeking to conceal from the people of England the acts of cruelty perpetrated in Ireland. Balfour's entire administration had been characterized by party malignity and calculated brutality.

Balfour retorted sharply, and concluded his remarks by saying if the country ones understood the criminal methods by which political objects were averted in Ireland, if the character of the alliance binding the opposition were revealed, the verdict would not be with Gladstone.

THE EX-PREMIER REPLIES.

Gladstone, who had come from Hawarden in order to assist in the attack upon the government, twitted Balfour and other Conservatives with having sought a similar alliance on the eve of the last election. The ex-Premier denied that the Liberals had sought party advantage in the alliance, which arose from a concurrence of opinion with the Nationalists upon the great issue of their policy toward Ireland. He proceeded to charge Balfour with misrepresenting Earl Spencer's treatment of prisoners when Spencer was Viceroy of Ireland, and reviewed other cases. Coming to the murders at Michaelstown, he assured the Conservatives that would silence the reproach arising from that mistake. It would be heard again and again, until the government would be obliged to condemn what it had heretofore praised, or until the whole country was given. (Cheers and counter cheers.) The murders were never even inquired into as they ought to have been. But what could be expected of an administration which claimed the character of honorable, or pure, or just?

NOTHING BUT REPENTANCE

Mr. Balfour said Gladstone, while protesting against strong language, indulged in criticism, the chief feature of which was the strength of ethics. He (Balfour) admitted he had erred regarding Earl Spencer, but his mistake arose from the defective information supplied him. Gladstone, in his account of the event at Michaelstown, omitted to refer to the mob's attack upon the police, thereby distorting the truth about the affair. The assailants of government could not travel beyond the narrow limits of a few charges, which had often been refuted.
